

Room by Emma Donoghue.

This is a difficult book to review without giving the plot away! It is the story of 5 year old Jack, who lives in a locked room with his Ma. The story is told through Jack's innocent eyes, a story of unspeakable cruelty, but also with moments of humour.

Most of the group seemed to enjoy reading the book, and there was plenty to talk about, with references to similar real life events.

Some members commented "A fantastic book""One of the best we've read" and "The detail involving their daily life in an 11 x11 room was amazing!"

Others found that life through the eyes of a 5 year old while giving an interesting perspective did become tedious when continued for a whole book and the story would have benefited from having the narrator different characters.

See what you think....